Description of the Courses offered by the Department of French¹

2202099 Intensive French (6 non-credit hours)

At the end of the second semester the first year students can take the French Proficiency Test (FPT). Those who pass the test should be able to follow the second year courses which will be taught entirely in French. Those who do not pass the test or opt not to take it take Intensive French which is meant to fill the gap between first year general language courses and second year more specialized courses. In Intensive French the student has to acquire the language proficiency to be able to follow the second year courses. For this reason, Intensive French will focus on listening and speaking. The student must have passed the Proficiency Test or Intensive French as a prerequisite for Listening and Reading Comprehension I (2242213) and Oral Skills (2232217).

2202101 French for Beginners I (3 credit hours)

In this course, the students acquire the four language skills: listening comprehension, reading, writing and oral skills. It covers the following fields: greeting, introducing oneself, asking for a vacation, buying tickets, specifying time and place, in addition to basic grammar issues: present tense of most verbs, definite and indefinite articles, negation, gender, possessive pronouns and numbers.

2202102 French for Beginners II (3 credit hours)

P. R.: 2202101 French for Beginners I

In this course, the language is taught in depth. French for Beginners II develops the skills acquired in French for Beginners I, i. e. listening comprehension, reading, writing and oral skills. It covers other new fields such as inviting, describing one's home, giving one's opinion, describing people's appearance and personality and the weather. In addition, new grammatical issues will be covered, such as past tenses, future tense and pronouns.

2202103 French for Specialization I (6 credit hours)

This course is based on a textbook that enhances the main skills of listening comprehension, reading, writing and oral skills. French for Specialization I covers the following grammatical content: present tense, the main rules concerning nouns and adjectives, possessive pronouns, numbers, negation, prepositions, demonstrative, relative and personal pronouns.

2202104 French for Specialization II (6 credit hours)

P.R : 2202103 French for Specialization I

This course focuses on the basic skills in French: Listening comprehension, reading, writing and oral skills. French for Specialization II covers the following grammatical content: past tense (passé composé/imparfait), future, conditionnel, imperative and indirect speech.
