

DEPARTMENT OF EUROPEAN LANGUAGES
Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs)
2017/2018

Bachelor's Program in Spanish and English Languages

At the successful completion of the Bachelor's Program in Spanish and English Languages, students should be able to:

- 1- Identify and discuss the main and introductory level theories of Spanish and English linguistics, including the fundamental of phonetics, semantics, and morphology and syntax, as well as basic pragmatic and sociolinguistic aspects.
- 2- Analyze various components of Spanish and English linguistics including the grammatical, lexical and orthographic features needed to communicate effectively.
- 3- Communicate effectively in reading, writing, listening and speaking in the specifics of different academic, professional and social setting in which Spanish and English are used.
- 4- Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject.
- 5- Apply the basic mechanics of translations, particularly in the Spanish-Arabic pair and English-Arabic pair.
- 6- Analyze, interpret and develop critical thinking skills with respect to literary texts from Spain, Latin America and other countries in which there is a literary production in Spanish.
- 7- Examine Hispanic Culture in its diverse manifestations including history, geography, literature, music, art and social structures.
- 8- Identify and produce conventional narrative and descriptive texts (spoken and/or written) such as descriptions of persons, places, and things, and narrations about past, present, and future events with a clear underlying structure through their comprehension, understand the main facts and some supporting details.
- 9- Evaluate different texts in terms of appropriacy for a given context.
- 10- Work in a team on any assigned projects and adhere to professional ethics in their job-related tasks and show respect of cultural diversity.
- 11- Utilize academic research methodologies and Information Communication Technologies (ICTs) to enhance their critical and analytical skills in Spanish and English languages and to generate new knowledge in the field of specialization.
- 12- Bear the assigned responsibilities as a specialist and function within the community set of values and ethics.

Bachelor's Program in German and English Languages

At the successful completion of the Bachelor's Program in German and English Languages, students should be able to:

- 1- Identify and discuss the main and introductory level theories of German and English linguistics, including the fundamental of phonetics, semantics, and morphology and syntax, as well as basic pragmatic and sociolinguistic aspects.
- 2- Analyze various components of German and English linguistics including the grammatical, lexical and orthographic features needed to communicate effectively.
- 3- Communicate effectively in reading, writing, listening and speaking in the specifics of different academic, professional and social setting in which German and English are used.
- 4- Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject.
- 5- Apply the basic mechanics of translations, particularly in the German-Arabic pair and English-Arabic pair.
- 6- Analyze, interpret and develop critical thinking skills with respect to literary texts from Germany, Austria and Switzerland and Liechtenstein in which there is a literary production in German.
- 7- Examine Germanic Culture in its diverse manifestations including history, geography, literature, music, art and social structures.
- 8- Identify and produce conventional narrative and descriptive texts (spoken and/or written) such as descriptions of persons, places, and things, and narrations about past, present, and future events with a clear underlying structure through their comprehension, understand the main facts and some supporting details.
- 9- Evaluate different texts in terms of appropriacy for a given context.
- 10- Work in a team on any assigned projects and adhere to professional ethics in their job-related tasks and show respect of cultural diversity.
- 11- Utilize academic research methodologies and Information Communication Technologies (ICTs) to enhance their critical and analytical skills in German and English languages and to generate new knowledge in the field of specialization.
- 12- Bear the assigned responsibilities as a specialist and function within the community set of values and ethics.

Bachelor's Program in Italian and English Languages

At the successful completion of the Bachelor's Program in Italian and English Languages, students should be able to:

- 1- Identify and discuss the main and introductory level theories of Italian and English linguistics, including the fundamental of phonetics, semantics, and morphology and syntax, as well as basic pragmatic and sociolinguistic aspects.
- 2- Analyze various components of Italian and English linguistics including the grammatical, lexical and orthographic features needed to communicate effectively.
- 3- Communicate effectively in reading, writing, listening and speaking in the specifics of different academic, professional and social setting in which Italian and English are used.
- 4- Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject.
- 5- Apply the basic mechanics of translations, particularly in the Italian-Arabic pair and English-Arabic pair.
- 6- Analyze, interpret and develop critical thinking skills with respect to literary texts from Italy and other countries in which there is a literary production in Italian.
- 7- Examine Italian Culture in its diverse manifestations including history, geography, literature, music, art and social structures.
- 8- Identify and produce conventional narrative and descriptive texts (spoken and/or written) such as descriptions of persons, places, and things, and narrations about past, present, and future events with a clear underlying structure through their comprehension, understand the main facts and some supporting details.
- 9- Evaluate different texts in terms of appropriacy for a given context.
- 10- Work in a team on any assigned projects and adhere to professional ethics in their job-related tasks and show respect of cultural diversity.
- 11- Utilize academic research methodologies and Information Communication Technologies (ICTs) to enhance their critical and analytical skills in Italian and English languages and to generate new knowledge in the field of specialization.
- 12- Bear the assigned responsibilities as a specialist and function within the community set of values and ethics.