22. Evaluation Methods and Course Requirements:

Opportunities to demonstrate achievement of the ILOs are provided through the following assessment methods and requirements:

During the exams (midterm and final) an unknown text/unknown texts is/are given (unknown, but similar to the texts analyzed in class), and the same type of exercise is asked for as those done in class. The exam questions concern the unknown text and the content of the class.

Course evaluation:

Midterm	30%
Comprehension quiz	10%
Participation	10%
Final	50%

23. Course Policies:

You are expected to be in class on time. Students coming late are allowed to enter but will be counted as absent. The same applies to leaving class early. No exceptions.

- Participation and students' involvement are crucial to the success of the course. All students are expected to read the assigned materials before lectures in order to fully engage in the discussions.
  - The University allows students to be absent to have seven times during the semester. These times include those with an excuse. If you exceed this limit, you will not be allowed to sit for the final exam. The only excuse that would remove your absence from your record is in case of a conflict with another course (a scheduled written exam).

No make-up exams. In case of sickness, only reports issued directly from a public clinic or hospital will be accepted. Medical reports from private hospitals will not be accepted even they are stamped by the university's clinic. Reports should be produced within a week of the date of the exam. No exceptions.
