INTERNSHIPS

German Language teacher at Goethe Institut , Amman

2012

I had the immense privilege of interning as a German language instructor at the esteemed Goethe Institute in Amman, Jordan. For six months, I assisted in developing and facilitating interactive language acquisition courses.

Through innovative lesson planning and hands-on mentorship from senior teachers, I refined my skills in utilizing lively communicative techniques that engaged students through cultural exploration, role-plays, projects, and multimedia activities.

○ German Language Instructor at German Jordanian University , Amman

The internship offered invaluable immersion in the latest approaches for teaching German through contextual learning and real-world application. I observed first-hand how a supportive, student-centered environment fosters rapid language development and intercultural competency.
