19. Course Description:

As stated in the approved study plan.

The main objective of this course is to introduce French majors to 16th and 17th century's French literature. The movements of Romanticism, Realism and Naturalism.

This course shall cover briefly the basic skills required to effectively stage-manage a theatre production and a play making. Students will learn the role and responsibilities of a Stage Manager prior to and during the rehearsal process and during performances. Students will also learn text analysis in the pre-production preparation process.

20. Program Intended Learning Outcomes: (To be used in designing the matrix linking the intended learning outcomes of the course with the intended learning outcomes of the program)

1. Analyze the purpose, style, and genre of literary texts, identifying how these elements contribute to achieving specific literary, rhetorical, and aesthetic effects.
2. Analyze the interrelationship between literary texts and their historical, social, and political contexts, exploring how these factors shape their meaning and reception.
3. Evaluate the theoretical frameworks and critical methodologies employed in the analysis of literature, rhetoric, and the teaching of reading and writing, assessing their strengths and limitations.
4. Evaluate literary works through a range of critical and theoretical lenses, formulating well-supported judgments about their significance and implications within the broader literary canon.
5. Analyze, evaluate, and critique French literary works and texts in relation to genres, historical periods, and criticism approaches used in analyzing literary texts and works.

6. Show respect of cultural diversity, ethics, and professional behavior and appreciate the aesthetic and rhetorical aspects in literary works from a variety of cultures.
 7. Identify scientific research principles and use higher order thinking skills and critical and creative thinking in analyzing and observing issues related to the knowledge and skills of the French language and literature, and to work within a team.
 8. Develop academic and pedagogical expertise, fostering the skills necessary for a successful transition into the academic and professional job market, and show respect of cultural diversity, ethics and professional behavior.
 9. Collaborate effectively with peers and scholars, demonstrating professionalism and responsibility in both independent and collective research endeavors.
- 21. Course Intended Learning Outcomes: (Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to achieve the following intended learning outcomes)
