19 Course Description:

This course concentrates on the description of the basics of Turkish morphology and syntax, from a theoretical and practical point of view. Students will be systematically trained in various morphological (word structure and its elements) and syntactical (elements of the sentence and its functions and interrelations) processes.

20 Course aims and outcomes:

A- Aims (SLO's//PLO's):

1-   Analyze and explain conventional narrative and descriptive texts, spoken and written, related to describing people, places, and things.

2-   Analyze, discuss, and critique the grammatical system and function of natural human language in Turkish and English languages, and develop his/her abilities and skills in phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, discourse analysis and pragmatics.

3-   Develop and use his/her Turkish and English language skills and engage effectively in communicative tasks and activities in academic and non-academic contexts.

4-   Analyze and evaluate major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches in Turkish and English literatures.

5-   Show respect to cultural diversity, ethics, and professional behavior and appreciate the aesthetic and rhetorical aspects in literary works from a variety of cultures.

6-   Use information and communication technology to access global databases and information to develop his/her knowledge and skills and use them in generating new knowledge in Turkish and English literary and linguistic texts.

7-   Analyze Turkish and English linguistic and cultural features effectively for the purposes of teaching Turkish and English as a foreign language in a wide range of contexts.

 8-   Identify scientific research principles and use higher order thinking skills, critical and creative thinking in analysing and observing issues related to the knowledge and skills of the Turkish and English languages and literature.

9-   Work efficiently within a team and bears the responsibility arising from it as a specialist in the Turkish and English languages and practices his/her work within the value system of society and its general ethics.

B- Students Learning Outcomes (SLOs):
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
        B1. Identify basics of Turkish phonetics from a theoretical and practical point of view
